DETAILED ACTION

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 3/15/10 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 21-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Burgess (US 5,647,521) in view of Johnson et al. (US 5,067,641).

Burgess discloses the invention substantially as claimed, including: a support mast 10; a hitch attachment bar 4 extending from the support mast; a first elongate support member 12 extending from the support mast in a direction opposite the hitch attachment bar; a pair of cradles 13a/13b fixedly disposed along the first elongate support member, the cradles each including four tines each having a free distal end defining two pairs of parallel arms forming a V-shaped base (see Figures 4-6), and wherein the cradles are considered capable of receiving a bicycle fork there between.

Burgess does not disclose a second elongate support member with a means for securing a wheel. However, Johnson et al. teaches a similar bicycle hitch carrier, wherein a pair of second elongate support members 55/56 are connected to a support mast 33, including an offset bar 59 and J-hook 62 capable of securing a bicycle wheel. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to provide Burgess with second support members and securing j-hooks, as taught by Johnson et al., in order to further secure the bicycle to the carrier.

Regarding the cradles receiving a bicycle fork and the j-hooks receiving a bicycle wheel, it has been held that a recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus satisfying the claimed structural limitations. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647 (1987). The modified Burgess device is considered capable of the claimed intended use.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 23-31 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
